

RPAC has fought for and protected over $549,986,500
in Realtor® commissions in Pennsylvania.

What do these savings mean to you?

RPAC has saved Pennsylvania consumers $13,700 for each home purchase, thanks to legislative victories like the defeat of mandatory sprinkler legislation. It's estimated that 118,916 prospective homebuyers can still afford the American dream of homeownership because of RPAC's continued support of private property rights. More home sales and better deals for Pennsylvanians mean increased business for Realtors® like you.

Contributions are not deductible for income tax purposes. Contributions to RPAC are voluntary and are used for political purposes. The amount suggested is merely a guideline and you may contribute more or less than the suggested amount. You may refuse to contribute without reprisal and the National Association of REALTORS® or any of its state associations or local boards will not favor or disfavor any member because of the amount contributed. 70 percent of each contribution is used by your state PAC to support state and local political candidates. Until your state PAC reaches its RPAC goal 30 percent is sent to National RPAC to support federal candidates and is charged against your limits under 2 U.S.C. 441a; after the state PAC reaches its RPAC goal it may elect to retain your entire contribution for use in supporting state and local candidates.
